

Global Pay Bills, a service allows to pay utility bills globally from Japan such as electricity, gas, water and landline, starts from August

Queen Bee Capital Co., Ltd. (Headquarters: Minato-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director: Shenbo Huang; Hereinafter “the company”), the Fund Transfer Service Provider (Kanto Regional Financial Bureau No. 00010) and operator of the overseas remittance service PayForex, has started Global Pay Bills from August 25th, a service that allows to easily pay utility bills globally (Electricity, Gas, Water, Landline etc.) in Japan through Internet.

Background on Service

For foreign workers who are living in Japan, remitting living expenses to “families who are living in their home countries” is one of the most important matters. So far, the company has been making effort to improving convenience for foreign workers in Japan such as easy remittance to their home countries. In addition to PayForex, a faster and cheaper remittance service comparing to sending money at bank counters, supporting remittance to overseas 24 hours, the company has provided PayForex Top-up service from February 2019, which focuses on overseas mainstream pre-paid mobile phones and allows customers in Japan, through PayForex, to top up their or their family’s mobile phones which are in contract in their home countries, and received highly comments from customers.

In response to requests from many foreign workers who “wish not only to top up mobile phones, but also to pay utility bills in their home countries which need efforts if they are in Japan”, the company decided to develop Global Pay Bills which supports to pay bills of electricity, gas, water, landline etc. globally.
